

How to Order Country Roads Cyclists Club Clothing

For CRC member convenience, an online “store” has been created to simplify the order process. Once the current order period has closed, the new custom jerseys will be shipped to the Club in 6-8 weeks, and you will be contacted by Kelly or Mary to arrange pick-up or shipping. Please note that no orders can be changed or added after the order period closes, and that these hand-made custom garments are non-refundable and non-returnable.

For a helpful walk-through of the online order process, please click here. To view a comparison of all the cycling jerseys offered, click here. Sizes generally run two to three times smaller than street clothes; to download size charts click here.
